Would you like to level up your gaming skills and help raise £5k for Spectrum Gaming and the PDA Society? We're hosting a 24 hour Gaming Marathon and all gamers are welcome!

How it works

SELECT

Gamers can choose ...

how long to play

24 hours

There's a relay team option for players of all ages or single players who are 18+ can attempt it solo!

OR

A portion of time

Single players & relay teams can set their own target time and we'll add it to our totaliser of hours played!

how to play

Streaming

Gamers can stream live to supporters if they like (we can help new streamers get started)

OR

Private play

Playing privately without streaming is also an option (whether online or offline, with others or solo)

what game(s) to play

Participants can play anything they like during the marathon - it's your choice!

We'll also invite registered gamers to optional group events throughout the 24 hours

SIGN UP

Gamers can sign up now by emailing info@spectrumgaming.net or info@pdasociety.org.uk

then spread the word, asking friends and family to sponsor them

We want this event to be both fun and safe. Everyone who signs up will receive top tips for staying healthy on the big day. All group events will be moderated by Spectrum Gaming's experienced team.

And whether you reach your target or not, we'll still be thrilled that you took part

Spectrum Gaming and the PDA Society are two small charities passionate about making a big difference. Spectrum Gaming is an online gaming community for Autistic young people and aims to build friendships, increase self-acceptance and advocate. The PDA Society provides information, support and training about PDA, a profile of autism, for individuals, their families, and professionals.

All donations received to Just Giving Gaming will be split 50:50 between Spectrum Gaming and the PDA Society.
